

SPARK!

CULTURAL PROGRAMMING for PEOPLE WITH MEMORY LOSS

This FREE 60–90 minute program takes place on the third Wednesday of every month | 10:00–11:30. Space is limited and registration is required. Contact Public Programs Assistant Ann Marie Craig at 262-247-2279 or acraig@wisconsinart.org. More at wisconsinart.org/spark

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 17 | 10:00–11:30 MINI GARDENS IN THE MOWA GARDENS

MOWA's spectacular hydrangea garden is in full bloom and is the perfect spot to enjoy the art of gardening by creating a terrarium to enjoy for months to come. We'll be outdoors under a canopy if the weather is fine and indoors if it is not.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 21 | 10:00–11:30 IT'S A POETRY PARTY!

Join in the fun when poet Gary Glazner, internationally recognized leader in creative aging and participatory arts, gets the party going with interactive performances of well-loved classic poems, humor, movement, and music. Art will be our inspiration!

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 19 | 10:00–11:30 AUTUMN CELEBRATION

It's autumn at MOWA, and there is no better way to celebrate than engaging with the colors and down-home images in John Stuart Curry's Wisconsin Farm Scene painting. Bring along your favorite fall recipe to exchange and enjoy a taste of pumpkin cookies too!
